

Course Description

The M- and P-Series Product overview is an interactive e-learning designed to provide an overview of the M- and P-Series product lines including features and benefits of the M- and P-Series products, accessories and controls. The course includes six modules to help you become more comfortable with the M- and P-Series products.

Prerequisite

None Required

Target Audience

All Audiences

Course Duration

1.5 hours

Educational Credits

Not Applicable

Course Tuition

No Charge

Classroom Requirements

Not Applicable

Objectives

- ▶ Identify the difference between Mitsubishi Electric and traditional competition
- ▶ Identify the features of the M- and P-Series product lines
- ▶ Explain the benefits of the M- and P-Series product lines
- ▶ Differentiate between the M- and P-Series products and product lines
- ▶ Identify basic unit types and capacities as well as other general features using model number
- ▶ Match elements of a model number to the correct descriptors
- ▶ Describe M- and P-Series product accessories.

